campus partner to share some expertise and engage in conversation with student org members/leaders on that topic. Upcoming dates are 9/23, 10/7, 10/21, 11/4, and 11/18 plus an additional session on 10/21 at 12:30pm for grad/prof orgs.

iv) Service

- (1) National Voter Registration Week: events started this week with Constitution Day and Suffragists Day of Honor. Will conclude next week with our (favorite) Non Paw-tisan National Voter Registration Day on 9/24 from Noon-4pm at multiple locations around campus.
- (2) Buck-I-SERV: winter participant and advisor applications are due 9/29. Interviews happening this week and next week for all leaders and international trip participants. The team has added new community partners this year, including an international trip to Uruguay in December.

v) Leadership

- (1) Catalyst: applications are available now for this single-day intensive leadership program, designed for emerging leaders to serve as a literal catalyst to future action. This is a national program, from LeaderShape, that we will offer for 60 OSU students.
- (2) Leadership Week: will be held October 20-25, kicked off by Catalyst. Will offer a variety of programs and events focused on 5 theme areas – personal exploration, community engagement, wellness, inclusion, and career development. All programs will be open to any student, although registration is required for some. Several events will be specifically offered for grad/prof students.

vi) D-Tix/Information Center

- (1) Throughout Student Activities, we have quite a few tie-ins to the Sesquicentennial that we will update on throughout the year. One of them is a special D-Tix promotion where we are able to offer 150 tickets at $1.50 each month. Here's the list:
